

The Occult Significance of September 11th

Martha Rose Crow

All Three Have Something In Common

When you ask someone to name a famous event on September 11th, the first thing they probably will remember is the September 11th “terror attacks” (all the evidence points to an inside job so who are the terrorists?) on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

Because many people are sleep walking - lulled into collective trances by constant propaganda, media misinformation, symbols embedded throughout social tapestries and dominant psychopathic culture that pervades the earth- some might forget the year “9/11” happened. Still, 9/11 is branded into the human psyche just like the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor is seared into the collective memory of those who went through this in 1941.

There are many numerological factors and ironies related to September 11, 2001 and to the Number 11 as well. For example, the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center formed an architectural symbol “11”.

Numerologists, Magicians (Light and Dark), alchemists, spiritualists, shamans, cabbalists, secret societies, so forth, understand the Power of Prime Numbers plus the Power of Symbols.

Roger A. Turner recently sent me a copy of his interesting book about how symbols (including numbers) are interconnected to each other and the to the illusions of this world. Turner’s unpublished book is titled The Trinity Matrix and I’ve learned some very important things from it. book.

This is what The Trinity Matrix says about the Number 11:

The number 1 (odd) is a gateway to the duality of 0 (even) and 11 (the two pillars/gate posts) are symbolic of the arch/gateway of this universe.

On Armistice Day/Remembrance Day/Veteran's Day, the dead from World War 1 are remembered at the 11th minute of the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month.

According to the occult Magi, the number 11 is the most powerful magic number, especially multiplied by 5. The sacred numbers of Thoth/Hermes/Mercury are 7, 11 and 44.

Most temples of ancient times had two pillars or columns standing at their entrance. These were used to convey symbolic meaning and primarily to form the gateway to the temple. Phoenician temples originally erected one pillar of stone to represent Melqart (male deity) and a pillar of wood (the tree/pant) to represent Astarte/Asherah (female deity who bears fruit), who was also associated with groves of trees. At some temples the pillar of Astarte/Asherah was made of bronze for durability.

The traditional pattern shows that the pillar to the right as you would leave the temple is the masculine and the one to the left is feminine. This would represent the gateway of the joined couple that brings the spirit into the world as a child. So it appears that the temple itself is the representative of the domain of the spirit, which is projected into the world of matter through the gateway of the mother and father.

The "two of the same but in opposition" is a powerful generator of energy as can be seen in electricity with the opposition of a positive anode and a negative cathode to create a current.

Roger said I could share The Trinity Matrix with any interested persons. I recommend readers to email Roger at ljmus2000@yahoo.com.au and ask him for a copy of his book.

A whole book could be written on the numerological paradigms, axioms, dynamics and symbolatry of the day September 11th and of prime numbers. Thus, I will illustrate a few highlights and encourage the reader to personally investigate this phenomenon for themselves.

There seems to be too many anomalies and ironies associated with this one day of the year. Few people in the world are aware that September 11th abounds with other powerful cultural and historical events in the annals of time.

Throughout recorded history, the world's major events that happened on September 11th are steeped in wars, battles, saber rattling, genocides, disasters, airplane crashes, assassinations, scandals, pivotal religious meetings and more.

It seems that September 11th is a secret ritual day for evil. Maybe the Heart of Darkness has chosen this day of the year for chaos, mayhem, destruction and murder to desecrate Christ's Birthday.

JESUS & JUDAISM

In 1981, 20 years prior to the 2001 attacks, a book called "The Birth of Christ Recalculated" came out. Dr. Ernest L. Martin, the author, claimed to have calculated the exact date of Jesus Christ's birth based on the celestial charts for that era. Christ's birthdate, based on the famous Star of Bethlehem, was calculated to be September 11, 3 B.C.

In Dr. Martin's later book "The Star that Astonished the World", he writes that the signs in the sky on the night of Jesus' birth occurred on only one day in 3 B.C., and they occurred exactly on September 11, 3 B.C. between 6:15 pm and 7:49 pm EST.

Many scholars, theologians, historians, and astronomers continue to accept Dr. Martin's calculation of Christ's birthday to this day.

Ironic, there are eleven letters in Jesus Christ.

According to Hebrew scriptures September 11, 1999 was the 6,000th anniversary of Adam's creation, plus Year One on the Hebrew calendar.

GEORGE H.W. BUSH – NEW WORLD ORDER

On September 11, 1990 at 9:09 p.m., President George Herbert Walker Bush spoke before a joint session of Congress, regarding the Persian Gulf War. Among other topics, he stated that the war presented an opportunity for a "New World Order" to emerge.

These are his words, "...Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective -- a new world order -- can emerge: a new era -- freer from the threat of terror, stronger in the pursuit of justice, and more secure in the quest for peace. An era in which the nations of the world, East and West, North and South, can prosper and live in harmony. A hundred generations have searched for this elusive path to peace, while a thousand wars raged across the span of human endeavor. Today that new world is struggling to be born, a world quite different from the one we've known..."

11 years later, on September 11, 2001, "terrorists" attacked America.

HELLRAISER III

Hellraiser is a British horror franchise that consists of eight films. The series' storyline focuses on a black magic puzzle box - a "Lemarchand's box"- that opens a gateway to another dimension, where demons the "Cenobites" come forth and take whoever opened the box back to their world where the person will suffer an eternity of torture.

These Cenobites are not only demons, but they feed off the energies of blood, suffering and death. In essence, they are immortal vampires and more menacing and threatening than the vampires on this planet. Notice Peter Tosh's quote later in this article about similar demon vampires.

On September 11th, 1992, the movie Hellraiser III: Hell On Earth was released.

Like the other first two films of the series, this third film of the series explores the themes of dark seduction of evil, exploitation of the weaknesses of humans, sadomasochism, dark destructive eroticism, pain as a source of pleasure, damnation, vampirism, demons and the near-impossibility of fighting evil back because it is much stronger, predatorial, ruthless and smarter than humans.

A very dark film for a very dark day.

PINNOCCHIO PINOCHET

On Tuesday September 11th, 1973, a military coup in Chile headed by General Augusto Pinochet toppled the democratically elected President Salvador Allende. Chileans gave Pinochet the nickname “Pinnocchio” to acknowledge the extent of his lies.

Pinochet’s rule was violent and bloody. Under the military government, every kind of human rights violation was committed. Pinochet’s dictatorship disappeared and murdered 2,279 persons for political reasons but this number is questionable because many others are still missing.. Approximately 30,000 Chileans were tortured and several thousand were exiled. The violence was directed not only against dissidents, but also against their families and other civilians.

By mid 1975, Pinochet set forth an economic policy of free-market reform. He abolished the minimum wage, removed artificially lowered food prices, rescinded trade union rights, privatized the pension system, and reprivatized state-owned industries and banks. He also lowered taxes on income and profits

Pinochet modeled his new economic policy on the Laissez-faire form of capitalism of Milton Friedman. This plunged most Chileans into extreme poverty, starvation and premature death as western capitalism raped their country of its assets.

CITADEL OF NEW ROME

On September 11, 1941 construction officially began at the Pentagon. On September 11th, 2001, the Pentagon was hit by an airplane in a “terror attack”: Exactly 60 years to the day.

HOLOCAUST

The start of the liquidation of the ghettos in Minsk and Lida by the Nazis began on September 11th, 1943.

EXPLODING CARS

The Ford Pinto was introduced Friday, September 11, 1970. Besieged with problems and scandals, many people died a fiery death because of a defect in fuel tanks when the tanks were hit by another car, object or impact of crashes. Instead of alerting the public and fixing the defects, Ford Motor Company chose to pay off the victims and/or survivors. It was only after victims, activists and whistle blowers raised the alarm did Ford acknowledge the problem and take action (fix the defects) about the problem.

REGGAE & A SWEDISH POLITICIAN

Reggae musician Peter Tosh was murdered in his own home in Kingston on Friday, September 11, 1987.

...“Never before had such a public figure openly insulted and contested the Jamaican regime. That is what separated Peter from the rest of his peers in the Jamaican music industry. While Bob Marley decided to go more mainstream, and easygoing, and Bunny became somewhat reclusive and unnoticed, Peter continued on in his same staunch, militant manner. This gave the people of Jamaica a strong leader whom they could trust to hold his morals steadfast in the face of adversity. It is not a coincidence that just four short months after Peter's verbal assault on the powers that be in Jamaica, that he was beaten to within an inch of death by as many as ten police officers. This, however, was just one of many cases of police brutality involving Peter Tosh. These attacks did not stop Peter, though, as they seemed to just make him madder and stronger. Peter loved the limelight, not because of the attention he got, but because of the issues it allowed him to bring attention to. While these physical attacks did little to censor Peter, it was the ethereal attacks which put fear into his heart.”...

<http://www.thetalkingdrum.com/tosh.html>

Peter Tosh was murdered by three intruders who demanded money. When he told them that he didn't have any, they shot him instantly. Ironic, for a robbery, nothing was taken from his house.

Dennis Lebbo turned himself over to the authorities, and was tried and convicted of Tosh's murder. The two other assailants were never found. Rumors abound in Jamaica that they were gunned down in the streets.

... “Peter Tosh was unhappy with the world, and wanted things to change. He saw evil, and wickedness, and destruction lurking.”...

...“Peter knew of the evils which prowled, laying hidden, waiting for the perfect opportunity to strike. He was a saint sent to save the world from the duppies and the vampires, whom the devil had sent to create mayhem and destruction. When Peter was once asked who the biggest vampire in Jamaica was, he replied, "Lucifer"...

...”The vampires which had been haunting Peter throughout his life finally caught up with him. In one interview he gave the year that he died he had this to say: "Vampires don't come out and bite your neck anymore. They cause...something destructive to happen that blood will spill and those invisible vampires will get their meals.”

<http://www.thetalkingdrum.com/tosh.html>

Notice the irony that Peter is a name associated with Jesus and that Peter was a problem for authorities as he was a steadfast and strong leader for Truth, Justice and social change. There are many people in the world that believe Peter died a martyr at age 43.

Swedish foreign minister Anna Lindh died Thursday, September 11th, 2003 after being fatally wounded on September 10th. She was shopping in a department store when a man attacked her with a knife, stabbing her several times in front of many horrified witnesses.

During her six years as president of the Swedish Social Democratic Youth League (1984-90), she committed herself to international affairs, the international affairs of Nicaragua, Vietnam, South Africa and Palestine. She was also against the arms race.

Lindh was vocal critic the 2003 invasion of Iraq (which is tied to 9/11). She said, "a war being fought without support in the statutes of the United Nations is a major failure".

During her career, she worked on environmental issues and advocated greater respect for international law and human rights in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Like Peter Tosh, Anna Lindh was a hero to many people and there are many people in the world that believe that like Peter Tosh, Anna died a modern martyr at age 46.

Mijailo Mijailovic, Lindh's assailant, said that he heard voices telling him that he had to kill the much-loved Swedish minister. On January 12, 2004, CBC News of Canada ran a story about Mijailovic titled, 'Jesus' told me to kill Swedish foreign minister, man confesses (<http://www.cbc.ca/world/story/2004/01/12/lindh040112.html>).

The article begins, "The man who has confessed to the stabbing death of Swedish Foreign Minister Anna Lindh says voices he believes came from Jesus told him to kill, according to police. Mijailo Mijailovic, 25, told prosecutors that he didn't know specifically who told him to kill Lindh, but said: "I think it is Jesus. That he has chosen me," according to a transcript of the confession.

Jesus represents Good Spirituality, peace, nonviolence, love, understanding, sacrifice, good deeds, healing, compassion and friendship to the common man, so forth. He is a persona, emblem, icon and symbol of everything opposite of murder, particularly murder of someone good like Anna Lindh.

Could it be that "The devil made him (Mijailovic) do it"? Many players and events in history seem to be under the influence of evil on September 11th.

OTHER SEPTEMBER 11TH EVENTS

Almost all the events listed below are bloody. Notice how this list begins and ends. There is an occult anagram (secret symbolism) connecting both the first event on the list (Russia tests the largest conventional weapon ever) to the last event on the list (Christ's birthday). I didn't do this on purpose, either. It just appeared.

One extreme event of goodness in 3 A.D. goes to an event of great extreme evil in 2007 and they both happen on September 11th.

It should be noted that no significant event happened on September 11th, 2008. Hurricane Ike was in the Gulf of Mexico but didn't make landfall (again) until it slammed Texas on September 14th.

See if you can connect any more dots:

2007: Russia tests the largest conventional weapon ever, nicknamed “The Father of all Bombs” (Aviation Thermobaric Bomb with Increased Power).

2005: The State of Israel officially declares an end to military rule in the Gaza Strip after 38 years of occupation.

2004: Petros VII, the (Greek Orthodox) Patriarch of Alexandria and his company are killed in an unexplained helicopter crash outside Mount Athos, Greece.

On March 11th, 2004 The Madrid bombings occur 911 days after 9-11.

2003: Swedish foreign minister Anna Lindh dies after being fatally stabbed on September 10.

The Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety enters into effect.

2002: NYC's winning lotto numbers are 911.

2001: The September 11 “terrorist” attacks destroy the World Trade Center in New York City, part of The Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia, and down a passenger airliner in Pennsylvania. In total, almost 3,000 are killed.

2000: Activists protest against the World Economic Forum meeting in Melbourne, Australia.

1999: The Jewish calendar is 6,000 years old as this day is regarded as the 6,000th anniversary of Adam's creation. It also becomes Day One of the new Hebrew calendar.

1998: Independent counsel Kenneth Starr sends a report to the U.S. Congress accusing President Bill Clinton of 11 possible impeachable offenses.

1998 - Opening ceremony for the 1998 Commonwealth Games in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Malaysia is the first Asian country to host the games.

1997: Scotland votes to re-establish its own Parliament on the 700th anniversary of the Battle of Stirling Bridge after 290 years of union with England.

NASA’s Mars Global Surveyor reaches Mars.

1996: Union Pacific Railroad purchases Southern Pacific Railroad

1992: The film Hellraiser III is released.

Hurricane Iniki, one of the most damaging hurricane in United States history during its time, devastated the State of Hawai'i, especially the islands of Kaua'i and Oahu.

1990: President George H.W. Bush made a dramatic speech to Congress, outlining the US position in the Kuwait crisis and announces the New World Order.

11 years later, on September 11, 2001, "terrorists" attacked America.

1989: President George H. W. Bush delivers a nationally televised speech in which he threatens the use of force to remove Iraqi soldiers from Kuwait, which Iraq had recently invaded.

1987: Reggae musician Peter Tosh is murdered in his own home in Kingston.

1987 - Dan Rather walks off the set of the CBS Evening News over disapproval of the handling of a major event being interrupted and postponed by a sports program, leaving six minutes of dead air.

1985: Pete Rose gets his 4,192nd career base hit, breaking Ty Cobb's record which stood for over 60 years.

1983: The international forces that were guaranteeing the safety of Palestinian refugees following Israel's 1982 Invasion of Lebanon leave Beirut. Five days later, several thousand refugees are massacred in the Sabra and Shatila refugee camps.

1981: The Pee-wee Herman Show airs as a special on HBO.

1978: U.S. President Jimmy Carter, President Anwar Sadat of Egypt, and Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel meet at Camp David and agree on a framework for peace between Israel and Egypt and a comprehensive peace in the Middle East. This didn't last. Thirty years later, the genocide of the Palestinians continues.

1974: Eastern Air Lines Flight 212 crashes in Charlotte, North Carolina, killing 69 passengers and two crew

1973: A CIA backed coup in Chile headed by General Augusto Pinochet topples the democratically elected President Salvador Allende. Pinochet remains in power for almost 17 years.

1972: Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) in America begins regular service.

The Munich Olympic Games end. Eleven Israeli athletes were killed.

1971 - The Egyptian Constitution becomes official.

1970: The Ford Pinto is introduced.

Eighty eight of the hostages from the Dawson's Field hijackings are released. The remaining hostages, mostly Jews and Israeli citizens, are held until September 25.

1968: Air France Flight 1611 crashes off Nice, France, killing 89 passengers and six crew.

1965: The 1st Cavalry Division of the United States Army arrives in Vietnam.

1962: The Beatles record their debut single, Love Me Do. The Beatles brought in a new era of music. Ironic that it was during the 1960's that rock music (minus a few exceptions) became dark and remains so until this day.

1961: Hurricane Carla strikes the Texas coast as a Category 4 hurricane, the strongest storm ever to hit the state.

The World Wildlife Fund is formed.

1960: Young Americans for Freedom meeting at home of William F. Buckley, Jr. promulgates the Sharon Statement.

1955: Dedication of the first Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Europe, the Bern Switzerland Temple.

1948: Mohammed Ali Jinnah, the first head of state for Pakistan dies in Karachi. Jinnah, a Muslim, was a strong advocate for Muslim - Hindu unity.

1948: Henri Queuille becomes Prime Minister of France.

1944: President Roosevelt, British PM Winston Churchill, and Canadian PM Mackenzie King meet in Canada, at the Quebec Conference.

The US 1st Army crosses the border into German territory.

RAF bombing raid on Darmstadt and the following firestorm kills 11,500 German citizens.

The first allied troops of the US Army cross the western border of Nazi Germany

1943: Start of the liquidation of the Ghettos in Minsk and Lida by the Nazis.

German troops occupy Corsica and Kosvo-Metohija.

1941: Construction officially begins at the Pentagon.

The US Navy ordered to attack German U-boats. Note: This was before war was officially declared on Germany.

Charles Lindberg gives a speech in Des Moines, Iowa, accusing the British, Jews and the Roosevelt administration of pressing for war with Germany.

1940: George Stibitz pioneers the first remote operation of a computer.

Buckingham Palace is damaged during a German air raid.

1932: Franciszek Zwirko and Stanislaw Wigura, Polish Challenge 1932 winners, are killed in a plane crash as their RWD 6 crashed into the ground during a storm.

1931: Gangster Salvatore Maranzano is murdered by Charles Luciano's hitmen.

1926: An assassination attempt on Benito Mussolini fails.

1922: One of the Herald Sun of Melbourne, Australia's predecessor papers The Sun News-Pictorial is founded.

Despite Arab protests, a British mandate is proclaimed in Palestine. The mandate came into effect at the end of September 1922.

1921: Motion picture star Fatty Arbuckle is arrested for rape.

Nahalal, the first moshav in Israel is settled.

1919: US Marines invade Honduras.

1916: The Quebec Bridge's central span collapses, killing 11 men.

1914: Australia invades New Britain, defeating a German contingent there.

1911: Middle Tennessee State University is founded in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, as Middle Tennessee Normal School.

1906: Mahatma Gandhi coins the term "Satyagraha" to characterize the Non-Violence Movement in South Africa.

1897: After months of pursuit, generals of Menelik II of Ethiopia capture Gaki Shercho, the last king of Kaffa, bringing an end to that ancient kingdom.

1888: Death of Argentine politician Domingo Sarmiento.

1893: First conference of the World Parliament of Religions is held.

1891: The Jewish Colonization Association is established by Baron Maurice de Hirsch.

1869: Work completed on the Wallace Monument.

1858: First ascent of Dom, the third highest summit in the Alps.

1857: The Mountain Meadows Massacre. Mormon settlers and Paiutes massacre 120 pioneers at Mountain Meadows, Utah.

1855: The siege of Sevastopol ends when British, French and Piedmontese troops capture the main naval base of the Russian Black fleet in the Crimean War.

1847: Stephen Foster's most memorable song, Oh! Susanna, is first performed at a saloon in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

1814: The Battle of Plattsburgh.

1802: France annexes the Kingdom of Piedmont.

1792: The Hope Diamond is stolen along with other crown jewels when six men break into the house used to store the jewels.

1789: Alexander Hamilton is appointed as first Secretary of the Treasury.

1786: The Beginning of the Annapolis Convention.

1777: Battle of Brandywine.

1776: British-American peace conference on Staten Island fails to stop nascent American Revolution.

1773: The Public Advertiser publishes a satirical essay titled Rules By Which A Great Empire May Be Reduced To A Small One, which is written by Benjamin Franklin.

1772: About 300 Indians and 50 British soldiers began the siege of Fort Henry. This was the last battle of the American Revolution.

1758: Battle of Saint Cast. France repels British invasion during the Seven Year's War.

1714: Barcelona surrendered to Spanish and French Bourbonic armies in the War of the Spanish Succession.

1709: Battle of Malplaquet. Great Britain, Netherlands and Austria fought against France.

1708: Charles XII of Sweden stopped his march to conquer Moscow outside Smolensk, marking the turning point in the Great Northern War.

1697: Battle of Zenta.

1683: John III Sobieski of Poland arrives on Kahlen Hill, leading to the Battle of Vienna the next day.

1649: Siege of Drogheda ends. Oliver Cromwell's English Parliamentarian troops take the town and massacre its garrison.

1609: Expulsion order announced against the Moriscos of Valencia; beginning of the expulsion of all Spain's Moriscos.

Henry Hudson sailed into New York harbor and discovers Manhattan Island and the Hudson River.

1541: Santiago, Chile is destroyed by indigenous warriors.

1499: French forces take Milan, Italy, with little opposition.

1390: Teutonic Knights begin a five-week siege of Vilnius.

1297: Battle of Stirling Bridge. Scots led by William Wallace defeat the English.

1226: The Catholic practice of Perpetual adoration begins.

1185: Isaac II Angelus kills Stephanus Hagiochristophorites and then appeals to the people, resulting in the revolt that deposes Andronicus I Comnenus and places Isaac on the throne of the Byzantine Empire.

506: The bishops of Visigothic Gaul meet in the Council of Agde.

9: The Battle of the Teutoburg Forest ends.

3: Christ was Born.

CONCLUSION

Today is January 11th. I worked several days on this article but couldn't finish it until today. I tried to avoid finishing it on the 11th because I understand the hidden power of numbers and symbols and I didn't want this article to be part of the enigma of the Number 11. But no matter how much I managed my time on this article, it wasn't finished until now, the 11th.

I guess this could be symbolic or prophetic or both, but I'm just going to chalk it up as irony and move on...

•••

You can contact me at greathierophant@yahoo.com